

THE CASE FOR CHRISTMAS
MATTHEW 1:18-25

MEDIA REFERENCE GS771 WEDNESDAY DECEMBER 27, 2023

Matthew 1:18–25

<sup>18</sup> Now the birth of Jesus Christ took place in this way. When His mother Mary had been betrothed to Joseph, before they came together, she was found to be with child from the Holy Spirit. <sup>19</sup> And her husband Joseph,

Matthew 1:18–25

being a just man and not wanting to disgrace her, resolved to put her away secretly. <sup>20</sup> But as he considered these things, behold, an angel of the Lord appeared to him in a dream, saying, “Joseph, son of David,

Matthew 1:18–25

do not fear to take Mary as your wife, for that which is conceived in her is from the Holy Spirit. <sup>21</sup> And she will bring forth a Son, and you shall call His name Jesus, for He will save His people from their sins.”

Matthew 1:18–25

22 All this took place to fulfill what the Lord had spoken by the prophet: [Quoting Isaiah 7:14]

23 “Behold, the virgin shall be with child, and bear a Son, and they shall call His name Immanuel” which translated means, “God with us.”

Matthew 1:18–25

<sup>24</sup> When Joseph woke from sleep, he did as the angel of the Lord commanded him: he took his wife, <sup>25</sup> but knew her not until she brought forth her firstborn Son. And he called His name Jesus.

Matthew 1:21

“ . . . save His people from their sins.”

“YAHWEH SAVES”

“There’s no reason to celebrate Christmas as Jesus’ birth. The whole story of a young virgin giving birth to a savior is a big myth.”

You KNOW it's a Myth

- The Christmas accounts in the Bible contain errors
- The Gospels were written two or three centuries after He was born, so they can't be reliable

A wooden manger filled with straw, set against a dark background. The manger is made of dark wood and is filled with dry, golden-brown straw. The straw is piled up, with some strands sticking out of the top and sides. The background is a solid, dark color, possibly black or very dark brown, which makes the straw stand out. The lighting is soft, highlighting the texture of the straw and the grain of the wood.

Flavius Josephus

was a historian for the Roman empire in the first century A.D. He mentions more than a dozen individuals talked about in the New Testament, including:

- John the Baptist
- Herod the Great
- Pontius Pilate
- Jesus

“At this time there was a wise man who was called Jesus. And his conduct was good and was known to be virtuous. And many people from among the Jews and the other nations became his disciples. Pilate condemned him to be crucified and to die. And those who had become his disciples did not abandon his discipleship. They reported that he had appeared to them after his crucifixion and that he was alive . . . ” –FLAVIUS JOSEPHUS

The TALMUD is a compilation of Jewish teachings that were passed down from generation to generation amongst the Jews and then finally organized and compiled after the destruction of the Jewish temple in A.D. 70.

“On the eve of Passover Yeshu [a shortened form of Yeshua, Jesus’ name in the Hebrew language] was hanged. For forty days before the execution took place, a herald went forth and cried, “He is going forth to be stoned because he has practiced sorcery and enticed Israel to apostasy. # Israeli Archaeologists Discover Ancient Church

Israeli archaeologists said Saturday they have discovered what may be the oldest Christian church in the Holy Land on the grounds of a prison near the biblical site of Armageddon (search).

The Israeli Antiquities Authority (search) said the ruins are believed to date back to the third or fourth centuries and include references to Jesus and images of fish, an ancient Christian symbol.

In Megiddo, in northern Israel, a prison inmate at a maximum-security prison (above) unearthed the remains of one of the oldest Christian churches ever discovered.

Pottery fragments and coins found at the site revealed that the place of worship was used by local believers and people from a nearby Roman camp, where two legions were garrisoned, around

AD 230

—so pretty early on in the history of the Christian Church.

While digging in the prison yard, Ramil Razilo discovered a sixteen by thirty-two-foot Greek-styled mosaic floor that bore an inscription mentioning that the building had been built in the memory of:

“The God
Jesus Christ”

Not only does this discovery help reinforce the fact that Jesus existed, it underscores what we have long known: the early Christians believed Jesus was:

GOD

JESUS:

A "COPYCAT" SAVIOR?

ZEITGEIST

The video alleges that the New Testament authors borrowed major details for Jesus' life from earlier sources (other religions) that were around before the rise of Christianity.

“The whole story about Jesus was plagiarized from ancient Egyptian myths about Horus.”

Horus

- born to a virgin on Dec. 25th
- worshipped by three kings
- teacher by age twelve
- had 12 disciples
- called “The Lamb of God”
- crucified, buried for three days, and then resurrected

If a person would take the time to read the “Horus” entry in the Encyclopedia Britannica (or any dictionary on ancient religions), he’d quickly discover that Horus was not born to a virgin.

The ancient myths say Horus (far left) was conceived by his parents:

- The god OSIRIS (middle)
- The goddess ISIS
(right)

Horus:

- ~~born to a virgin~~ on Dec. 25th

It was not until about A.D. 336 that the December 25th date became the official date to celebrate Jesus' birth.

Horus:

The Bible knows nothing of “three kings” showing up at Jesus’ birth or anytime after. Three kings is an idea that occasionally appears on some poorly researched Christmas cards, but *not in the Bible.

Matthew 2:1

“Now after Jesus was born in Bethlehem of Judea in the days of Herod the king, behold, [Kings? No.] magi Three magi? No.] from the east arrived in Jerusalem.”

Magi were known as WISE MEN, not kings.

The same Zeitgeist video that's been misleading people with all this Horus garbage also says that the Bible's account of the virgin birth was borrowed from the ancient religion of Mithraism.

The myths say MITHRAS arose spontaneously from a rock in a cave.

A dramatic, low-key photograph of the infant Jesus lying in a manger. Mary is on the right, looking at the baby with a gentle expression. Joseph is on the left, leaning over and looking at the baby. The scene is set in a dark, rocky environment, likely a stable or cave, with a soft light source illuminating the baby and the faces of the parents. The overall mood is intimate and reverent.

It was the FULFILLMENT OF A PROPHECY
given in the Book of Isaiah 7:14, seven hundred years before Jesus' birth.

And many Bible commentators believe the virgin birth of the Messiah was prophesied as far back as GENESIS 3 where God seems to indicate that the coming Messiah would be born to a woman apart from a relationship with a man.

4 ALLEGED ERRORS
IN THE THE CHRISTMAS ACCOUNTS

The Gospel of Matthew tells us that after Jesus' birth, Joseph was warned in a dream to take Mary and Jesus to Egypt to escape King Herod who sought to kill Jesus (Matthew 2:13).

The Gospel of Matthew tells us that after Jesus' birth, Joseph was warned in a dream to take Mary and Jesus to Egypt to escape King Herod who sought to kill Jesus (Matthew 2:13).

In Luke's Gospel, there is no mention of:

- Herod's threat
- Joseph's dream
- the escape to Egypt

Luke just tells us that sometime after Jesus' birth, the family “returned to Galilee, to their own city of Nazareth” (Luke 2:39).

In his book, God is Not Great, the late well-known atheist, Christopher Hitchens said
Matthew and Luke's
accounts

“flatly contradict each other”

because of this.

They assume a PARTIAL report is a FALSE report.

Luke

(mentioned in Matthew 2)

Matthew

leaves out details about the shepherds coming to see Jesus and Jesus being brought to the temple in Jerusalem
(mentioned in Luke 2)

“The Bible says Herod’s soldiers killed all the young boys in Bethlehem (Matt. 2:16). If that really happened, surely Josephus or another historian would have mentioned it.”

At the time of Jesus' birth, Bethlehem was a small obscure village in the middle of nowhere as far as the Roman Empire was concerned.

William F. Albright estimated that the population of Bethlehem at the time of Jesus' birth was only about: 300 people.

There would have only been about SIX or SEVEN boys who were two years old or younger when Herod ordered them to be put to death.

Josephus, who was born about forty years after the Bethlehem murders, may have never heard of the event. Or, perhaps, he just decided to leave it out of his Antiquities of the Jews.

Josephus

- three of his own sons
- his wife
- her grandfather
- his mother-in-law
- several uncles
- a couple of cousins

If Herod was willing to kill his own sons, what would stop him from ordering the killing of other peoples' sons, especially if one among them had been prophesied to be a ruler of the Jews?

ANTI-SUPERNATURAL BIAS

“No way! These things couldn’t have happened! They must be made up!”

If Jesus was the One who spoke the universe and all of life into existence in Genesis 1—then it would be no problem (for example) for Him to speak life into a dead man like Lazarus (John 11:43).

THE RISE OF CHRISTIANITY IN JERUSALEM

It is an accepted historical fact that the Christian faith (a religion built upon the preaching of the resurrection of its leader) originated in approximately A.D. 32 right in the very city of Jerusalem where Jesus had been publicly crucified and buried.

Because a message calling people to repent and put their faith in a resurrected miracle-working Messiah could never have gained any substantial following in Jerusalem if the people had not actually seen Jesus work miracles.

The best explanation for the immediate rise of Christianity (and its phenomenal growth), right in the very city where Jesus was crucified, is that Jesus really did rise from the grave and work miracles.

Is it reasonable to suppose that thousands of people within those early days following Jesus' death were actually deceived into believing a man rose from the dead?

How hard would it have been in the weeks following that tragic event, to CONVINCE HUNDREDS of people in the city of Dallas who were there and saw J.F.K. die, that he came back to life after he was buried?

In the days immediately following Jesus' public crucifixion (a crucifixion verified by Roman and Jewish historians outside the New Testament), thousands of Jews who lived there in Jerusalem and who knew Jesus had died, suddenly converted to Christianity, convinced Jesus rose from the grave.

Acts 1:3

“ . . . presented Himself alive after His suffering, by many convincing proofs, appearing to them over a period of forty days . . . ”

Liars lie to get out of trouble or gain some type of advantage or benefit. But what the early Christians said about Jesus, didn't get them out of trouble or result in any kind of benefit.

What these men said and wrote about Jesus got them in trouble.
What they received was:

- rejection
- persecution
- torture
- martyrdom

6 THE SUPPOSED LATE AUTHORSHIP OF THE GOSPELS

There's no evidence any of the New Testament books were written down two to three hundred years after Jesus.
And there is good evidence most of the New Testament was written down before AD 70.

The New Testament Scriptures are absolutely silent regarding the destruction of the Jewish temple by the Romans in A.D. 70.

Flavius Josephus, an eyewitness to the event, says the Roman soldiers destroyed the Jewish temple as well as the entire city of Jerusalem.

In the process, Josephus says 1.1 million people died, and that the Romans carried away 97,000 people as prisoners.

War of the Jews, Book 6, Chapter 9:3

NEW YORK

Brian Schielmann

Well, the same is true with the New Testament. Its silence regarding the destruction of the temple in Jerusalem is a strong indicator the New Testament was largely completed before A.D. 70.

Paul was put to death around A.D. 64 and Peter c. A.D. 65.

And though the deaths of other prominent Christians are mentioned in the New Testament (e.g., Stephen and James) the deaths of these two apostles are not mentioned anywhere.

7

OTHER ALLEGED GOSPELS

Why did Christians leave those writings out of the Bible?

A group of people, including men, women, and children, are gathered under a thatched roof. They are wearing traditional Middle Eastern clothing, such as head coverings and long robes. The scene is lit with warm, golden light, suggesting an indoor or sheltered outdoor setting. A central text overlay is present.

THEY NEVER BELONGED IN THE BIBLE.

When the so-called “Gospel of Thomas” and other “gospels” purportedly written by Judas, Philip, and Mary Magdalene started appearing on the scene long after these persons died, Christians recognized them for what they were—pseudo gospels that were un-inspired, spurious writings.

They realized these writings were not written by Thomas and the others, but by false teachers who attached the disciples' names to their writings seeking to influence Christians with their unbiblical, heretical ideas.

Scholars have determined that every one of these so-called gospels that were left out of the New Testament originated in the second or third century A.D. —long after Jesus, Thomas, Mary Magdalene, Philip, and Judas walked the earth.

—THE GOSPEL OF THOMAS

Simon Peter said to them, “Make Mary leave us, for females don’t deserve life.” Jesus said, “Look, I will guide her to make her male, so that she too may become a living spirit resembling you males. For every female who makes herself male will enter the domain of Heaven.”

(Verse 114)

—THE GOSPEL OF THOMAS

Jesus said to them, “If you fast, you will bring sin upon yourselves, and if you pray, you will be condemned, and if you give to charity, you will harm your spirits.”

(Verse 14)

—THE GOSPEL OF THOMAS

Jesus said, “Lucky is the lion that the human will eat, so that the lion becomes human. And foul is the human that the lion will eat, and the lion still will become human.”

(Verse 7)

The Christians (who were widely familiar in the second and third centuries with the genuine teachings of Jesus and the apostles) knew that these were not the kinds of things Jesus or the disciples ever taught.

YOU HAVE NOT FOLLOWED “CLEVERLY DEvised MYTHS.”

(2 Peter 1:16)

There's good evidence that Jesus was a real person and that the Gospels are trustworthy records of His life.

Two thousand years ago, God came to the Earth in the person of Jesus on a mission to rescue you from the consequences of your sins.

On the cross, God suffered the condemnation and judgment you deserve for your sins, so that you could be forgiven, rescued from spending eternity in Hell, and be brought back into a right relationship with Him.

He rose from the grave three days later, and today He offers all humanity:

- “the forgiveness of sins”
(Acts 26:18)
- “peace with God”
(Romans 5:1)
- the “free gift”
of “everlasting life”
(Romans 6:23; John 3:16)

“Whosoever believes in Him will not perish but have everlasting life.”

–JESUS

(John 3:16)

God, thank You for loving me. Please forgive me for my sins. I trust in Jesus Christ to save me! Come into my life and be my Lord and Savior.

God, thank You for loving me. Please forgive me for my sins. I trust in Jesus Christ to save me! Come into my life and be my Lord and Savior.

Romans 10:13

“Whoever calls upon the name of the Lord will be saved.”
